

WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIFE OF A CHILD?

Why not consider becoming a Speech-Language Pathology Assistant (SLPA)?

What is a SLPA?

Speech-Language Pathology Assistants work in schools under the supervision of a Speech-Language Pathologist, helping students with communication disorders improve their speech and language skills. SLPAs work with individuals or small groups of children from preschool to high school ages.

This is a fast-growing field which needs bright and energetic people.
Bilingual skills are a bonus!

What is required?

- A.A. or A.S. degree
- Certification through a state licensing board

Positions are open now in local public schools!

Typical pay range $16.00 - $29.00/hour

- ❖ Some school districts offer benefits
- ❖ Opportunities for career advancement

For more information about community college training programs and local job opportunities, contact Ventura County SELPA (805)482-2353 or go to www.venturacountyselpa.com, click on Careers in Special Education.